FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BRUNSWICK TOWN COUNCIL TO SEEK PUBLIC COMMENT ON TAX ASSESSMENT PROCESS

On Thursday, August 17, the Brunswick Town Council unanimously voted to postpone the revaluation indefinitely. The letters that taxpayers received recently with new property values will NOT be used. Tax bills to be issued in September will be based on last year's values.

The postponement is intended to allow for a review of the assessing process generally and the methods used to determine taxable property values. The Town Council's Finance Committee (consisting of Councilors Nat Shed, Dan Ankeles, and Sande Updegraph) has been charged with assisting in the development and delivery of educational outreach about the assessing process. The Committee will address mobile home parks, neighborhood codes, the working waterfront on a local level, and other related topics.

The Finance Committee will be meeting on Thursday, August 31, 6:30pm, Town Hall, 85 Union Street, to begin formulating its communication plan. The community is invited to attend in person or via ZOOM, or to watch live on TV3. An agenda and links are available on the Town website www.brunswickme.org/agendacenter. This meeting will be the start of a new effort to inform and involve residents in issues of concern to Brunswick. Citizens are encouraged to attend and bring ideas and comments.
